

ALLIED DRIVE IS STILL UNCHECKED; FORCE HUNS BACK

Greatest Struggle is Now Along Western Flank of Salient

(By The Associated Press.)
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 26.—For the second time since the big battle broke out, the weather today interfered with operations especially in the air. Before the work of aerial observation and bombing was ended however, one American aviator, Lieutenant Avery succeeded in forcing down alive within the American lines a German captain who had a record of sixteen victories over allied aviators.

Another American near Villeneuve also brought down a German plane.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 26.—By the Associated Press.—The allied offensive has slowed down but has not been checked. Franco-American troops today forced back the Germans a bit farther north. The greater part of the fighting line is taking place in the big forests north of the Marne and along the western flank of the salient.

The Germans with artillery and machine guns and strong infantry detachments left the northern edge of the Fere, Tournelle and Ris forests and battled cleverly and stubbornly to hold the advancing allies until more progress could be made in the transportation of their supplies, guns and general stores.

But despite the opposition some ground was gained. The woods tonight have almost been freed of Germans.

With a further slight push forward by the allied troops Fere-en-Tardenois will become untenable. Villeneuve will be restored to the allied line and from it the allied artillery can easily reach the Germans near Fere-en-Tardenois.

To Place Territory Under Martial Law

LONDON, July 26.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Amsterdam says the West-Zeitung of Bremen learns from Budapest that the king of Roumania has been ordered to place all Roumanian territory under martial law.

In semi-official quarters in Berlin the despatch adds this report has not been contradicted and it was said nothing could be couched regarding the significance of the measure.

Retain Nothing of Recently Won Ground

LONDON, July 26.—The Germans today retain virtually nothing of the ground they conquered in their attack of July 15 along the Marne, says Reuters' correspondent at French headquarters. East of Rheims the correspondent adds, General Gouraud's army by a series of brilliant local operations has expelled the enemy almost everywhere from the narrow belt he occupied in Gouraud's advanced zone.

Local Operations Along British Flanders Front

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, July 26.—By the Associated Press.—The Germans, having their hands full on the Marne, are contenting themselves along the British front in Flanders with attempting to carry out local operations at points where they have suffered small but nevertheless important defeats during the past week.

Last night another attack developed between Beaumont and Hebuterne. New Zealanders completely broke up the German attack, drove off the enemy with heavy losses and in addition captured 30 prisoners.

At several places along the front the nature of the artillery fire indicated that the Boche was jumpy and nervous.

Late News Considered Particularly Favorable

PARIS, July 26.—Havas Agency.—The latest news from the Aisne-Marne battle front is covered by the German newspapers to be particularly favorable. The entente allied progress is believed not as yet to have come to an end. Despite stubborn resistance the Germans have been obliged to give up Oulchy-le-Chateau and it is thought that the Teutons cannot long hold Fere-en-Tardenois.

La Liberté says the Germans must be considering a retreat to the banks of the river Vesle, as fires and explosions are multiplying in the German lines and the Teuton provisions and other stores are in flames. The Germans, the newspaper adds, either must retreat or face disaster.

German Attack Proves Disastrous for Enemy

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, July 26.—By the Associated Press.—The German attack this morning near Metern had even more disastrous results for the enemy than was first believed. It proved a complete failure. It appears that the Germans intended to reach the Gaza road in the south of Metern from where they could menace the town. Accordingly they sent over two companies from each regiment of the Twelfth division which has just replaced other troops who had been badly mauled during the month.

The Twelfth division came up from Italy, one regiment wears a special "Kaiser Karl" shoulder straps, won for its services in the Italian theatre.

This regiment, however, will get no decorations for the deeds it performed today. Scotch troops met it and inflicted heavy losses and prevented the Germans from getting anywhere near their objective. The Germans managed to get one small outpost, that was all.

In the same locality the Australians are busy knocking the Germans about. Their shells have chewed up all the cross roads, dumps, and other targets within range.

Astounded to Hear of Large U. S. Army

PARIS, July 26.—Havas Agency.—Among the prisoners captured in the Aisne-Marne battle was a nephew of Prince von Buelow, former German imperial chamberlain. The officer, who was a battalion commander, was astounded to hear that there was a large American army in France. He said he had been convinced as had all Germans that the American soldiers in France did not exceed 50,000.

Progress Except On Heights Behind Soissons

LONDON, July 26.—On all sides of the German salient the allies are reported today to be continuing to make progress, except on the heights behind Soissons. The German resistance to the French pressure has been very determined in this latter sector. The advances reached elsewhere are for the most part slight.

The allies in this sector hold Marfaux, Bouilly, St. Euphrase and Courton Wood.

Between the Ourcq and Chateau-Thierry the Franco-American line now shows an advance beyond the line of a week ago of from six to eight miles.

As a result of the past week's activities the whole situation on the western front has been transformed. The Germans, according to despatches from the front, have used 65 divisions on the Champagne front and the whole of the crown prince's reserves have been exhausted. The only fresh reserves remaining to the Germans are less than thirty divisions attached to Crown Prince Rupprecht's armies.

Last week it appeared certain that Prince Rupprecht would be called upon to launch an attack on the British front, but the enemy put off this attack and the psychological moment for it probably has passed, for the Germans appear committed to the great battle in progress and can not afford to stake heavily on a dubious operation at another part of the front according to the views of the British experts. The German situation in the salient, although awkward, is not untenable. The enemy's difficulties are not greater than those in which the British army was placed for many months in the Ypres salient, before the capture of Messines Ridge.

The Ypres salient was five miles wide and five miles deep and was dominated by the enemy. The present German salient is now twenty miles wide and twenty miles deep and similarly is dominated by the allied artillery.

Evidence has reached the allies in the shape of captured documents to show that the enemy had made up his mind on the day after the allied offensive began to undertake a retirement to a line along either the Ardre or Vesle, and had actually given orders for this, but these orders were later cancelled, presumably owing to the difficulty of effecting an orderly retreat in the ping-pong attack.

The German command has decided to retain the present positions as long as possible.

Meanwhile the military writers point out the allies are using up the German reserves in a battle where the Germans are continuously in a disadvantageous position so the situation is entirely satisfactory to the allies.

One reason for the Germans' abandonment of the plan for retirement is found in the reports of allied airmen, which show tremendous congestion along the lines of German communication.

May Be Setting Stage for Decisive Battle of War

FOLLOW ALLIES DRIVE
 Washington, July 26.—Behind the apparent lull in the struggle around the Aisne-Marne salient today the high command of the allied and German armies may be setting the stage for the decisive battle of the war. In that event it seems more than likely to observers here that the fourth anniversary of the beginning of the world conflict will see a flame of fighting raging from east of the North Sea, but Rheims to a final conflict in progress somewhere just north of the historic Marne, where the Germans have twice tasted the bitterness of defeat.

There is nothing as yet in official reports, however, nor in advice so far as known to the plan of General Foch. Flickers of fighting have occurred to the north that may have more than local significance behind them. There is some evidence of a feeling here that the time has not yet come when a sufficient American army has been assembled in France to warrant passing definitely to offensive tactics. It was recalled today that General March recently indicated to members of congress that this was not to be expected until later in the year. The situation has

War News Summary

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

The ninth day of the allied offensive in the Soissons-Rheims salient saw a lessening in the intensity of the battle along the western side of the salient where only mutual bombardments were in progress. Along the Marne however, and southwest of Rheims the Franco-Americans, British and Italian forces were still at deadly grips with the enemy on various sectors.

The Germans strove hard in the forest region north of the Marne to hold back the French and American troops, debouching from the woods in strong counterattacks. The enemy however, everywhere, was forced slightly further back to the north and the forests now have been almost entirely cleared of Germans.

Southwest of Rheims heavy reinforcements evidently have been thrown along the front, where the British, French and Italians are fighting. In the immediate region of Reuil, where the battle line turns sharply toward Rheims the French have captured several important points of vantage, including the village of Reuil and also advanced their line northward, notwithstanding the violence of the German counter move.

To the northeast where the Germans are facing the British, the enemy have recaptured Mery and Hill 204 but the British have retained their hold on Vigny and most of the other territory taken in that region.

Eastward from Rheims in the Champagne the French have now regained nearly all their old line positions and daily are harassing the Germans with counterattacks. Before the fighting died down along the western side of the Rheims-Soissons salient the villages of Oulchy-le-Chateau and Illemontaire were captured by French and American troops who advanced their lines eastward of changed greatly at the front since then and only developments there will show what decision has been made.

Officers here have watched the battle of the last eight days closely for its wider significance. At first it appeared that the fierce counter attack launched by General Foch on the western side of Aisne-Marne salient was intended only to offset the German effort to encircle Rheims and further exploit the menace toward Paris. As success followed success for the Franco-American troops and as first the Italian and then the British joined in the struggle the nature of the operation changed. It was clear that the tables had been turned on the enemy and that the nut cracker tactics he had attempted to apply to Rheims was in turn being applied to his armies within the salient.

The enemy was quick to realize his danger. Behind a stubborn rear guard he drove back across the Marne and today was apparently still struggling northward out of the depth of the pocket in which he had been caught. To save his advanced forces here, reserves have been called to hold apart the jaws of the great trap until the armies of the crown prince could escape.

Yesterday the advance of the British northwestward from the region of Rheims aroused hope among officials here that the allied forces might be able to spring the trap. The lull today, however, seemed to indicate that General Foch was not prepared at this time to press his attack to the full power in that direction. That the enemy has it in his power to refuse a decisive struggle and the continue his withdrawal until his line has been straightened out and his flanks protected, most officers who discussed the situation today believed.

The present withdrawal, it was thought, probably was directed toward a turn in the line where a sufficient stand would be made to test out General Foch's plans and that line should be reached and defined in the fighting of the next day or two.

As the situation stands the vital necessity is for the German to protect his exposed flanks at Soissons and before Rheims. Massed reserves are now holding these fronts.

British Tanks Blaze Trail for French Infantry

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, July 26.—By the Associated Press.—British tanks have blazed the trail for and co-operated with the French infantry in its recent ground gaining assault north of Montdidier. The vicinity was important for, by hurling the enemy lines west of the Avre river from the high ground between Morisel and Montdidier into the valley on a front of more than two miles thereby compelling the French somewhat relieved the pressure on Amiens and in addition surrounding territory and in addition captured some high ground over much enemy territory. Out of the early morning storm the great lumbering monsters spitting deadly streams of bullets suddenly appeared before the enemy. They promptly proceeded to crush the machine gun nests and then to chase and run to earth stray enemy groups, the French gaining ground all the while. The Germans had perfect horror of the tanks according to prisoners taken. They lowered flat low

Adopts Graduate Excess Profits Tax on Incomes

(By The Associated Press.)
 WASHINGTON, July 26.—The graduate excess profits tax of from 30 to 80 per cent on net income beyond exemptions practically was adopted today in a final form by the house ways and means committee, thereby ratifying the tentative agreement reached yesterday. The committee also decided upon the same specific exemption of $2,000 plus ten per cent on the amount of invested capital as tentatively decided yesterday. Adjournment was taken by the committee until Monday when taxation of luxuries estimated by the treasury as capable of raising $2,000,000,000 will be considered.

Complaints of inequalities to the treasury and to the committee are expected to be remedied by the committee's action today in repealing a section of the present revenue law. The effect will be that the excess profits tax under the pending bill will not apply to individuals and partnerships but only to corporations.

The committee decided to retain substantially the same type of capital invested and other definitions as are in the present law.

There has been suggestions that invested capital should include borrowed money and good will and other considerations. While not definitely stating the matter the majority committee was favorable to a provision that in no case should the excess profits tax exceed sixty per cent of the net income nor be less than 10 per cent of the net income in the case of corporations with a capital exceeding $200,000.

Officers Meet DEATH LEADING THEIR TROOPS

American Officers of High Rank Slain at Battle Front

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, Wednesday, July 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—Colonel Hamilton Smith, of the United States army died on July 22, within a few hours after receiving a machinegun wound below the heart. Colonel Smith was making observations after a morning attack in anticipation of improving the American positions south of Soissons, near Missy-Au-Bois. Lieutenant Colonel Clark Elliott was killed by machine gun fire in the same sector while inspecting the American front lines. Major J. M. McCloud was wounded while leading his men when the Americans crossed the Soissons-Arras road during the offensive. He was wounded in the left arm and in the left side by machine gun bullets, but after receiving first aid he continued fighting. The major was killed soon afterwards by a high explosive shell.

Soon after Major McCloud died Lieutenant James C. Loder was killed by machine gun fire near where McCloud fell. On different days the following captains were killed by guns and shells, all of them leading their men when they fell:

James A. Edgerton, Julius A. Mood, Alfred R. Hamel, James N. Richard and James H. Holmes.

Colonel was in Outpost

Colonel Smith was looking over the edge of a hill endeavoring to locate the Germans when he was struck. The Americans already held their objective but Colonel Smith desired to improve the position. He was in an outpost accompanied by Private Charles Aug. of Sacramento, Calif., who rendered first aid and called for assistance.

Becoming impatient Aug suggested dragging Colonel Smith back, but the colonel said: "That would be too much of a chance for you, Aug. There is no use of exposing yourself. The wound is not serious, I can wait."

Aug insisted and started with Colonel Smith thru a wheat field. There was no complaint from Smith during the trip. Aug frequently stopping to rest and inquire how the wounded man felt and the colonel replying: "I'm all right; look out for yourself. Those machine gunners can see you move but not me."

They finally reached a farm house where American soldiers were sheltered. The farm house was more than 200 yards from the spot where Colonel Smith was wounded. The injury was dressed at the farm house but Colonel Smith died on the way to a field hospital.

Yankees Find Hundreds of Dead Germans

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—The American troops advancing along the Marne have discovered hundreds of dead Germans. The victims fell before the heavy machine gun fire of the Americans during the retreat. In one horse shoe area the ground was covered with dead. The Americans buried as many as was possible. It is estimated that 2,000 Germans fell there. Farmers along the Marne report having seen the bodies of German dead floating down the stream. The military authorities are planning some system by which they can clear the river of bodies. Three days after the Germans evacuated Chateau Thierry the Americans found a lone German in Mont-St. Perault hiding in a cellar. The prisoner said he was tired of the war and was determined to desert himself, notwithstanding the fact that he had no food and later take a chance by surrendering to the Allies. He asserted that the German soldiers were dissatisfied with the way affairs were going and that the general opinion among them was that the crown prince was unable to bring sufficient reinforcements or food supplies to aid the forces being attacked from the south.

BALL PLAYERS GIVEN UNTIL SEPTEMBER 1

Must Then Be in Essential Employment Or Called to Colors

(By The Associated Press.)
 Washington, July 2.—Professional baseball players were given until September 1st to seek essential employment or be called to the colors, in an order issued by Secretary Baker today, denying the application of the National Baseball Commission that the effective time of the work or fight regulations as they apply to the baseball industry be extended to October 15. The secretary said that the limit extension of time was given because of the representation made that baseball players may have been put in a less favorable attitude than others affected by the regulations because of their reliance on his statement that the question of their inclusion in the terms of the order would not be decided until a case had arisen.

Provost Marshal General Crowder, Mr. Baker said, had reported that it was not clear to him that the game would have to be discontinued even if the order were made immediately applicable to baseball players. Major league players would be affected.

While regarding it as unfortunate to have as wholesome a recreation as baseball destroyed, the war secretary said it would be a much more unfortunate thing to preserve even so wholesome an amusement by making an exception in favor of baseball players, which is denied to great classes of persons in the United States who were immediately associated with processes of the national daily life more fundamental than any mere amusement.

There was this difference, he said, between baseball and other sports, that baseball is more productive. Baseball is more integrated at least in the sense that its successful conduct depends upon the preservation of all the major leagues scattered throughout the country, while in most occupations the work or fight order has merely a series of local and more or less personal effects.

Join to Draft Evaders

Chicago, July 26.—President Comiskey, owner of the world's champions today received a letter from the National Commission which gave a jolt to baseball players who seek employment in the ship yards and other war industries. The letter called for the players to be placed in Class 1 by their draft boards. The commission which met in Washington said in its letter to the White Sox' owner that the government would not permit ball players to dodge the national army draft by entering the employ of ship yards and other war industries.

The general view of club owners was that the National and American leagues should immediately hold a joint meeting to settle this question. They opposed strongly any suggestion that the series should be abandoned saying that such action would bring keen disappointment to civilians and fighting men alike. All were convinced that the public should be informed as soon as possible when the series would start.

ENGLISH AIR EXPERT MAKES STATEMENT

London, July 26.—"It would be very easy for any English airplane manufacturer to produce a machine which could make better than 350 miles an hour," declared Captain W. G. Aston, one of the leading English experts on air mechanics, here the other day.

"This could be accomplished," he explained, "by merely altering the curvature, or camber, of the planes. But this would mean a minimum landing speed of about 150 miles an hour, and there is the great difficulty. The machine would be unquestionable flyable, but its successful landing would require an aerodrome five or six miles long, to say nothing of extraordinary skill on the part of the pilot."

BELFAST HAD EPIDEMIC OF ACUTE INFLUENZA
Belfast, Ireland, July 26.—Belfast recently suffered from an epidemic of the acute form of influenza which was so prevalent in Spain a few weeks ago and afterward developed in other countries. The spread of the disease was checked here and did not assume alarming proportions.

We believe Mr. Henderson is the best preserved man both physically and mentally of any we know of his age. Many returns of the day.

Miss Annabel Crum of "The Ives" is driving a pretty Overland car on our streets.

On Tuesday Mrs. J. F. Neil of Arcadia, celebrated her seventy-eighth birthday at Shady Maples, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Hitchens of Literberry.

There was a swell dinner at noon and a small company of friends to help eat these viands. A very pleasant day was spent. Those present besides the Hitchens family were Mrs. Sallie Collins, Mrs. Ora Collins, Mrs. Luther Cooper and daughter Barbara, Mrs. Elizabeth Lister and Mrs. Leet Deatherage.

Mrs. Lizzie Ennis and Mrs. Clarence Hopkins were taken to Passavant hospital on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Bert Oroyd, the mother of Mrs. Hopkins will keep the baby, little Celeste Hopkins, until the mother gets well and returns home. The Literberry friends all hope for a speedy recovery for these sick neighbors.

L. G. Crouse of Murrayville, who was badly injured Tuesday morning, when his horse reared and fell upon him, is doing as well as can be expected, under the circumstances. He probably will be kept from work for several weeks.

MINNESOTA NOW HAS AVIATION FIELD

Minneapolis, Minn., July 26.—Smuggled among a fringe of trees Minnesota's first regular flying field, located about one mile north of Minneapolis is already alive with activity and aviators are daily soaring over the broad stretch of farm land thru which the Mississippi winds.

The field comprises 540 acres and was donated to the government during the war by Earl Brown, son of a former Minneapolis miller. Brown has taken a leading part in war relief work.

Altho the field equipment has not been completely installed, this work has progressed rapidly. Twelve tent hangars have been erected on one side of the field and each contains a modern training airplane. Living and sleeping quarters for the mechanics have been installed and testing work is being done.

"HAS BEEN A FRIEND TO ME"

Says Lady, Regarding Cardui, in Giving This Well Known Woman's Tonic Credit for Her Good Health

Cleveland, Tenn.—Mrs. Joanna Felker of this place after telling of the help she obtained from the use of Cardui 12 years ago, when it built up her health and strength says further: "The next time I used it (Cardui) was about 4 or 5 years ago. I had... and was just able to drag around for a good while, getting worse all the time. I suffered intense pain in the lower abdomen and back... Could hardly do my work, it was all a drag... and walking was very painful for me. I finally had to give up and go to bed, where I stayed about a week... and then turned back to Cardui, my old friend."

After starting the Cardui, I was able to be up in 2 or 3 days... The pains were relieved soon after beginning to take the Cardui, and when I got up, walking was easy for me... Got back my health and strength... and in 3 weeks was able to do most of my work. It's a fine medicine, and has been a good friend to me, and I am a friend to it too. It's thru taking Cardui I have been well and strong and in good health for the past 4 or 5 years... I will always praise it."

Cardui should do for you, what it has done for thousands of other women. It should help you. Try Cardui.

Prof. G. W. Brown Well Known Educator Dead

Prof. George W. Brown, who passed away at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at Passavant hospital, ranked as one of the most prominent citizens of Jacksonville.

Prof. Brown, who was always an Illinoisan, was born at Fairview in Fulton county, January 29, 1845. He was therefore seventy-three years of age and his life had been one of unusual activity. Thru his interest in education along business lines and because of his own educational ability, he became one of the county's foremost business college educators.

The early days of Prof. Brown's life were spent in Fulton county and he attended high school at Canton. Subsequently he went to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to take a business course, and it was there that he acquired an interest in this special type of educational work. After finishing his course at the Poughkeepsie institution he went to New York City for a year or more, where he had employment as a bookkeeper.

Came to City in 1867

Subsequently he returned to Illinois and it was about 1867 that he arrived in Jacksonville. He came here to take a position as an assistant instructor in the business college that Prof. R. C. Crampton owned and had established in the north side store building now occupied by Andre & Andre. Prof. Brown came at the time to fill an unexpired term of another instructor. His own work was so satisfactory that he was retained by Prof. Crampton and remained an instructor there for several years. Subsequently the business college was sold by Prof. Crampton to Illinois college and it was removed to the Whipple academy building which the college owned, located on the present site of Brown's business college. The two were operated there for several years, when it was determined by the college trustees to erect a special building for Whipple academy on the college grounds.

At that time Prof. Brown purchased the business college from Illinois college and entered immediately upon its direction. It was only a few years that the management of this institution measured up with his ambition and he set about the task of acquiring a series of colleges. He acquired several institutions in other cities during the next succeeding few years and when he had demonstrated the feasibility of operating these institutions under one management he proceeded more rapidly until he was the owner of fourteen or fifteen of the best known business colleges in this state and a number in St. Louis. He made various purchases and sales of business college property and it is known that he was at various times the owner of at least thirty-six of these institutions.

Educational Authority.
As a result of his intimate connection with business college affairs he became an authority on business education and was also often called outside the state to take part in business college affairs.

Prof. Brown was an enthusiast in his work. He had indefatigable energy and so his activity in business college education brought financial reward. He was a very busy man and thru a period of years was in Jacksonville only a limited part of his time. Seven or eight years ago he began to feel the need for lessening the speed of his daily work and he at that time sold to Peck & Read of St. Louis five of those institutions in St. Louis. He, however, retained several, together with the building in this city. He sold the school at that time but because of a certain feeling of sentiment, owing to the fact that the college here had formed the nucleus of his work, the ownership of the building was retained. However, after disposing of these properties it was only a few years until his marvelous energy again asserted itself and he acquired business college holdings in a number of northern Illinois cities.

Health Failed in 1917
A severe health breakdown last October made a long vacation period necessary and at that time he disposed of practically all of his holdings. For a period Prof. Brown was in Philadelphia for medical treatment and here in Jacksonville has been under the constant care of physicians. For several months past his condition has grown gradually worse and his relatives and intimate friends have known that the end was but a question of a limited time. In fact, it was his fine courage and indomitable will that postponed the day of his going thru a period of months.

Prof. Brown was married in this city in 1872 to Miss Evelyn Fairbank, daughter of the late J. C. Fairbank, and the family home has always been in this city. Mrs. Brown survives him, together with three daughters, Mrs. Frank J. Waddell, Miss Clara Brown and Mrs. Helen Brown Read, all of this city.

Prof. Brown for a long period had membership in the Congregational church and was active in the councils of that organization. Those who knew him well knew him as a business man of far more than usual acumen, a firm and helpful friend. With his energy he had a quickness of decision and a grasp of detail which had large influence in his successful life. Prof. Brown had high ideals of public service. He had no use for sham or hypocrisy. His own life was an open book and those who have read its pages know that it is the record of a life well spent—a life of far more than the average usefulness.

Funeral Sunday

The funeral services will be held Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at the residence on Westminster street, with services in charge of Dr. Frederick S. Hayden. Interment will be in Diamond Grove cemetery. Friends are requested to omit flowers.

CITY REQUESTED TO CHANGE NAME
Bismarck, N. D., Officials Receive Hundreds of Requests to Change City's Name—Loyalty of Citizens Indicated in Clear Manner.

Bismarck, N. D., July 26.—Hundreds of requests for this city to change its name have been received by State and city officials from individuals and organizations in every section of the United States. Local agitation has been stimulated by newspaper articles in Eastern and Pacific coast papers.

But Bismarck residents have only to point to their war achievements to indicate the city's loyalty. The first North Dakota soldier reported killed in action was a member of the Bismarck national guard unit. The first North Dakota boy to be invaded home from the front was a Bismarck guardman. Bismarck has "gone over the top" in every war and war relief campaign. The town raised two national guard infantry companies and two headquarters companies before the war was two months old. It has been officially announced that more than 10 per cent of Bismarck's male adults are serving the colors.

Opinion on changing Bismarck's name has been sharply divided. Those favoring a change have been conducting a spectacular campaign in which yellow paint and very expressive signs have been used. On May 14, 1872, the town was organized at the western terminus of the Northern Pacific railroad. It was called Edwinton. Then some thrifty persons conceived the idea of attracting German capital by changing the name to Bismarck. The plan was adopted and so pleasing was the change that the Berlin government took official notice of the honor at the laying of the cornerstone of the territorial capitol, on September 5, 1883. The ceremony was attended by Baron von Eichenbender, German minister to the United States.

The baron was accompanied by General Grant, General Sherman and other famous men. Later this to let her husband go to war, Mrs. Richard Jones, of Nanticoke, Pa., has assumed his place as telegrapher in one of the banks of that town.

SELLS PATENT RIGHTS TO NEW MOTOR ENGINE.
Copenhagen, July 26.—The Dutch inventor, Ellishammer, recently sold his patent rights in a new motor engine to Norway and Sweden. The sum he received is reported to be greater than has ever been paid in Scandinavia for an invention. The feature of the new motor is steam. It is claimed that it will supersede the ordinary explosion engine, that it is neither heavier nor bulkier than the benzine motor in common usage and can use the cheapest raw oils.

letter was received from the Iron Chancellor:

"In response to the address on the fifth of September last, so highly complimentary to myself, I would express my heartfelt thanks. I wish the young city, whose career I shall follow with the greatest interest, the rapid development which its fine situation and the energy and intelligence of its citizens give reason to anticipate."

"Bismarck"

This letter is still in the city's archives. Until recently a steel engraving of Bismarck occupied a prominent place in the city hall. Then some one stole it.

Bismarck has had a stirring history. Its chronicles include the names of Custer, Grant, Sherman and Logan and Greeley, the arctic explorer. From Bismarck brave pioneers fought their way westward and from here the foundations of many important north-west cities were laid. The battle to change the name of this city is being waged with some of this old time fierceness and typical of the fight is a sign which recently was erected at the Northern Pacific station, after the station's sign boards had been smeared with yellow paint. The sign read: "To hell with this blockheaded hum. What did he ever do for us, anyway?"

2. The local fuel administration for the territory within which any city, village or town is located shall arrange with the proper municipal or town authorities or such city, village or town for the regulation of public lighting in accordance with the provisions of paragraph Number 1 of this order. Regulations for public lighting so arranged shall in each case be subject to the approval of the proper state fuel administrator, and in case regulations in accordance with said Paragraph 1 for the public lighting of any city, village or town, satisfactory to the state fuel administrator of the state within which the same is located, shall not have been arranged between the local fuel administration and the proper municipal or town authorities as hereinbefore provided within ten (10) days from and after the effective date of this order, said state fuel administrator is hereby authorized and directed to prescribe such regulations for such city, village or town, and the same shall be valid and binding.

3. (a) The use of light generated or produced by the use or consumption of coal, gas, oil or other fuel, for illuminating or displaying advertisements, announcements or signs, or for the external ornamentation of any building shall be entirely discontinued on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week, within New England and the states of New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia, and shall be entirely discontinued on Monday and Tuesday of each week in all the remainder of the United States.

Exception:—Bona fide roof gardens, where meals are served and outdoor restaurants, also establishments devoted exclusively to the exhibition of out-door moving pictures at which admission is charged, are exempt from this section.

3. (b) The use of light generated or produced by the use or consumption of fuel for illuminating or displaying any shop windows, store windows or any signs continued from sunrise to sunset and shall also be discontinued on the night specified in Paragraph 3 (a).

4. The state fuel administrators within several states are hereby directed and authorized to see that the provisions of this order are observed and carried out within their several states, to report violations thereof to the United States fuel administrator, and to recommend to him action to be taken with respect to such violations.

This order shall be effective on and after July 24, 1918.

RETURN FROM TRIP TO TEXAS.

Charles H. Story and party returned Friday evening from a trip to the lower Rio Grande country of Texas. Accompanying Mr. Story were Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Murray, W. R. Johnson of Winchester and Herman Engelbrecht of Bluffs. The land in the locality visited is irrigated and of very high fertility. The farmers were busily engaged in harvesting the corn crop which in that locality commands a price of $2 a bushel. Cotton was also being gathered and the present selling price ranges from 27 to 30c a pound. The first broom corn crop produced from 400 to 450 tons to the acre and the second crop is now growing. The ordinary field corn crop will be followed with corn and the intervening months will be used for vegetables. The land there is cultivated for 12 months of the year. The visitors were greatly pleased with the country.

Altho there are not nearly as many trains to the south now as formerly, fast time was made and the travelers went from St. Louis to their destination in 23 hours. The returning time was just about as satisfactory.

Mr. Engelbrecht purchased an 80 acre tract in that locality some months ago and made this trip in order to plan for some buildings.

Miss Marie Mayer of West North street and Miss Mildred George of South Clay avenue went to Sinclair yesterday to visit with friends.

Old Folks Saved
From Suffering

Mrs. Mary A. Dean, Taunton, Mass., in her 87th year, says: "I thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proven most beneficial in my case."

Mr. Sam A. Hoover, High Point, N. C., writes: "My kidney trouble was worse at night and I had to get up from five to seven times. Now I do not have to get up at night, and consider myself in a truly normal condition, which I attribute to Foley Kidney Pills, as I have taken nothing else."

Mrs. M. A. Bridges, Robinson, Mass., says: "I suffered from kidney ailments for two years. I commenced taking Foley Kidney Pills ten months ago, and though I am 61 years of age, I feel like a 16-year-old girl."

Foley Kidney Pills are tonic, strengthening and up-building, and restore normal action to the kidneys and to a disordered and painful bladder. They act quickly and contain no dangerous or harmful drugs.

The dollars you invest in thrift stamps now will return enlarged and improved in a few years.

The nation is said to be laboring under a paper shortage; yet the daily mails are being overburdened with letters, circulars, etc., that go into waste baskets. Every business man in the country is being deluged with unimportant mail matter.

The question of what an enlisted man in the American army does with all his money has been answered here by a disclosure of the financial affairs of one of the boys from this city. The soldier receives $33 a month. Of this $15 is sent to his mother, $5 is paid on a Liberty bond and $6.50 is deducted for insurance, leaving a balance of $6.50, or approximately 21 cents a day. An Uncle Sam provides him with everything he desires and the 21 cents is left for his pocket.

One American town is going to have a beautiful and lasting memorial for each of its soldiers who fight for Uncle Sam. The town is Oklahoma City, and the plan is to plant a tree for each soldier. Set at the foot of each tree, says the Oklahoma News, will be a metal plate bearing the soldier's name. The plan will result not only in a singularly appropriate monument for each soldier, but also in beautifying the entire city. It will be the duty of each person who plants a tree in honor of a soldier to guarantee it will be permanently cared for. Would not that be a good plan to inaugurate at Nichols Park?

MORAL TURPITUDE.
Equipment scandals, being discovered in the furnishing of materials to soldiers, give a delineation of human character which escapes ordinary comprehension. The lure of lucre can be allowed all its influence and yet, in no man's understanding, there would be a limit where its power would cease.

The contractors, for instance, who build army hospitals, are often furnished to the soldiers raincoats which fell to pieces at the first use seem to belong outside the normal moral perceptions of humankind.

The crime of bribery and substitution, when the consequences must be borne by men risking their lives for the general good, is not of moral and social levity, which indicates birth and training in Gehenna, not in a world which, with its vices and weaknesses, strives to preserve characteristics for human recognition.

There is no lapse from any standards which the human race can establish which so marks the degenerate as alien to all human thought, unthought, unfeeling and emotion as this lapse which represents individual profit.

Such profiteers are further removed from habits of human being than apes and baboons.—Chicago Tribune.

DESTROYING DEMOCRACY.

President Wilson in a personal statement addressed to his fellow countrymen, denouncing mob spirit and mob action, called upon the nation to show the world that while it fights for democracy on foreign fields it is not destroying democracy at home.

The president referred not alone to mob action against those suspected of being enemy aliens or enemy sympathizers; he denounced it not sympathetically but action of all sorts, especially lynchings, and while he did not refer specifically to lynchings of negroes in the South, it is known that he included them in his characterization of mob spirit as "a blow at the heart of ordered law and humane justice."

It is known that the lynchings of negroes, as well as attacks upon those suspected of being enemies or sympathizers have been used by the German propaganda through Central and South America as well as in Europe, to contend that the pretensions of the United States as a champion of democracy are a sham. Deeply concerned by the situation the president decided to address his fellow countrymen and to declare that "every mob contributes to German lies about the United States what her most gifted liars cannot improve upon by way of calumny."

The president's statement in full follows:
"My Fellow Countrymen:
"I take the liberty of addressing you upon a subject which so vitally affects the honor of the nation and the very character and integrity of our institutions that I trust you will think me justified in speaking very plainly about it.
"I allude to the mob spirit which has recently here and there very frequently shown its head amongst us, not in any single regard but in many and widely separated parts of the country. There have been many lynchings, and every one of them has been a blow at the heart of ordered law and humane justice. No man who loves America, no man who really cares for her fame and honor and character or who is truly loyal to her institutions, can justify mob action while the courts of justice are open and the governments of the states and the Nation are ready and able to do their duty.

"We are at this very moment fighting lawless passions. Germany has outlawed herself among the nations because she has disregarded the sacred obligations of law and made lynchings of her enemies. Lynchings emulate her disgraceful example. I, for my part, am anxious to see every community in America rise above that level, with pride and a fixed resolution which no man or set of men can afford to despise.

Mob Discredits Democracy.
"We proudly claim to be the champions of democracy. If we really are, in deed and in truth, let us see to it that we do not discredit our own. I say plainly that every American who takes part in the action of a mob or gives any sort of countenance is no true son of this great democracy, but it's betrayer and does more to discredit her by that single disloyalty to her standards of law and order than the words of her statesmen or the sacrifices of her heroic boys in the trenches can do to make suffering peoples believe her to be their saviour.

"How shall we commend democracy to the acceptance of other peoples, if we disgrace our own by proving that it is, after all, really, in deed and in truth, a mere disguise for the selfish interests of a few? Every mob contributes to German lies about the United States what her most gifted liars cannot improve upon by the way of calumny. They can at least say that such things cannot happen in Germany except in times of revolutions when law is swept away!

"I therefore very earnestly and solemnly beg that the governments of all the states, the law officers of every community, and above all, the men and women of every community in the United States, all who revere America and wish to keep her name without stain or reproach, will co-operate—not passively merely, but actively and watchfully, to make an end of this disgraceful evil. It cannot live where the community does not countenance it.

Must Keep Laws Inviolable.
"I have called upon the Nation to put its great energy into this war and it has responded—responded with a spirit and a genius for action that has thrilled the world. I now call upon it, upon its men and women everywhere, to see to it that its laws are kept inviolable. Its fame untarnished. Let us show our utter contempt for the things that have made this war hideous among the wars of history by showing how those who love liberty and right and justice and are willing to lay down their lives for them upon foreign fields stand ready also to illustrate to all mankind their loyalty to the things at home which they wish to see established everywhere as a blessing and protection to the peoples who have never known the privileges of liberty and self-government.

"I can never accept any man as a champion of liberty either for ourselves or for the world who does not reverence and obey the laws of our own beloved land, whose laws we ourselves have made. He has adopted the standards of the enemies of his country, whom he affects to despise.

"Woodrow Wilson."

KULTUR.

You ask me what this "kultur" means, that's boomed by Prussian kings and queens? Well, slaying babes with submarines, that's kultur. I make a solemn pledge to-day, and later think it may not pay, whereat I throw the pledge away—that's kultur. I see the Red Cross banner fly above a shed where sick men lie; I bomb the shed, and they all die; that's kultur. I line myself with brutes and beasts, I give the vultures hang the priests—that's kultur. At every hour to and I cry, "I'm pointing to the sky; in every act God I defy—that's kultur. I send my neighbors' sons to fight against the sacred cause of right; but mine are safe at home each night—that's kultur. I claim that butchery is wise, that tears are good for human eyes; I swear to all ungodly lies—that's kultur. Of the thought of all that's wrong and foul, of sins that travel cheek by jowl, of kings who strut while subjects howl—that's kultur. And think of all the homes destroyed, the fair fields now an aching void, of those by treachery decoyed—that's kultur. There is an evil fiend abroad that knows no conscience, truth or God; we go to strike it to the sod: it's kultur.

JOHN M. BLACK PASSED ON FRIDAY

Pioneer Resident Died at Home of Son Northeast of City—Resided in Jacksonville for Many Years—Funeral Sunday.

The venerable John M. Black died Friday morning at 5 o'clock at the home of his son, J. R. Black, about six miles northeast of the city.
Mr. Black was born December 3, 1829, and was the son of Samuel and Mildred Gaines Black. He was born on an ancestral farm not far from Shiloh church and lived in that vicinity till 25 years ago, when he removed to the city and lived on South Clay avenue till the death of his wife, some four years ago, when he went to the home of his son, where he received the kindest of care and attention until the time of his death.

Mr. Black received the meager educational advantages afforded the rising generation at that early day and was a man of intelligence and refinement and made the most of his advantages. He was married September 27, 1853, to Miss Sarah C. Vaughan, a young lady who was visiting here from Kentucky. He was the father of three children, who survive him. They are Luella, Mrs. Joseph Litter; John W. and James R. Black, of this county. Three brothers, Samuel, Richard and William, are dead. Three sisters, Mrs. William C. Self, Miss Martha and Miss Sarah, Mrs. T. M. Sharpe, survive him.
He was a member of Brooklyn church, uniting at the time Rev. F. B. Madden was pastor. He was a man of integrity and was popular with all who knew him. He was a kind husband and father and a good neighbor and will be missed by many who knew and esteemed him.

The funeral will be conducted by Rev. G. W. Wetzel at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of James Black, six miles northeast of the city. It is also the desire of the family to have Rev. F. B. Madden assist. Burial will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

TORRID WEATHER PREVAILED FRIDAY

Mercury Reached 100 Degrees—Comparison With Hot Weather of Other Years.

Friday the mercury reached 100 degrees, the hottest so far recorded this summer. However, no relief is promised by the weather man, and it may go higher today. Showers are predicted for Sunday.

The Friday was a hot day, it did not compare with some of other years. According to George H. Hall, United States volunteer weather observer at Alexander, the year 1901 brought the hottest weather recorded in this part of the country.

Beginning July 20, when the mercury reached 100 degrees, it followed with 106 on July 21, 109 on July 22, 103 on July 23, and 105 on July 24. This weather exceeded any known torrid weather in the history of the city.

During July, which is usually the month when we have the hottest weather, some figures are given for various years. July 30 and 31, 1917, the mercury reached 97, which was the warmest weather of the summer.

In July, 1916, there were 11 days when the mercury was 100 or higher. The maximum was 102 on July 15, July 1915, was 100 for one month. The highest temperature recorded was 90, on the 14th and 15th. July 16, 1914, the mercury registered 106. There were six days when it registered 100 or higher.

In the year 1878, fires were needed on July 4. Following that was a period of torrid weather for twenty days, when everything suffered. The year of 1854 was a standard year for heat in the earlier days. August 1, 1854, the temperature registered 100 degrees and there were 40 deaths from Asiatic cholera which was raging thru the country.

ABE BROVERMAN DIES IN BATH TUB

Young Man Succumbs While Taking Bath—Body Found by Sister—Coroner Rose Held Inquest.

Abe Broverman who lived with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Markham, 215½ South Sandy street in the flat above the Muehlhausen Tailoring store was accidentally drowned in the bath tub when he was bathing about 8 o'clock Friday evening.

Fainted In Tub.
According to a statement made last night, Broverman went to the bath room and lighted the instantaneous heater, which exploded. However, he later returned to the bath room and turned on the cold water, while the young man was in the bath room his sister, Mrs. William Markham, went to the laundry store in the Gause block to purchase supplies, when she returned she heard the water in the bath room running with such force that she called to her brother to shut it off. When no answer came Mrs. Markham called Mrs. Margaret Hunter in looking through a transom over the door. Miss Hunter saw Broverman lying in the tub, evidently unconscious. Mrs. Markham then forced the door and lifted her brother to a sitting position in the tub, but life was already extinct.

Effort to Restore Life Failed.
Help was summoned and J. F. Brennan and William Coverly came here from Springfield where tub, working with him to restore life, but to no avail.

Mr. Broverman came to Jacksonville about five weeks ago and worked with his brother-in-law, William Markham, who is agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Company, until about two weeks ago when he took a place in the yard office of the gas plant. He came here from Springfield, where his father and mother reside. He is survived by his father and mother, and two sisters, Rose and Sarah, of Springfield; Mrs. Bertha Markham, of Jacksonville, and Esther, of New York City; six brothers, James, of the U. S. Army; Lewis, of Franklin, Pa.; Harry, of Detroit; J. M., of Springfield; Sol, of Taylorville, Ill.; and Harry, somewhere in France.

The body was removed to the Williamson & Cody Undertaking Parlor and will be sent to Springfield, today where the funeral will be held Sunday at the home, 827 West Jefferson street, near Rabbit Holbitz officiating. Burial will be in Oak Ridge cemetery.

Coroner's Jury Verdict.
Coroner Rose empaneled a jury and held an inquest Friday evening. The jury was composed of J. T. Roach, foreman; James V. Kennedy, clerk; Charles D. Hansen, D. R. Muhagtrody, Fred L. Batz and John C. Fair.
The testimony of Mrs. Markham and Miss Margaret Hunter was heard and brought out the facts as stated in the foregoing. The jury returned a verdict that death resulted from accidental drowning while taking a bath.

ROTARY CLUB HEARD ABOUT FLYING

Lieut. McGinnis Instructor at Scott Field Made Interesting Address.

Lieut. Harold McGinnis of Scott aviation field was the principal speaker at the Rotary club luncheon at the Pacific hotel Friday afternoon. Lieut. McGinnis was presented by Chairman J. M. Capps as a Jacksonville young man who had made good in the dangerous aviation section of army activities. The speaker made little of personal reference, confining himself largely to an explanation of the plans of training followed for the men who are accepted for this branch of the service.

The lieutenant explained the principles of flying and described something of the sensation of the airman. According to his statement, it takes only a short time in the air travel for a flyer to overcome any fear that he may have and the likelihood of accident is measured quite largely by the coolness of the flyer. There are certain principles of operation to follow and the airman who remembers these is not very likely to meet with accident. The airman after comparative few trips begin the "stunts" which qualify them for more difficult maneuvering. Asked as to the number of accidents at Kelly Field in Texas, Lieut. McGinnis said it was not surprising that there were more accidents were heard from that field, because of the very large number of flyers. They are to be seen at all hours of the day and often in the evening. With hundreds of men constantly flying, it is not surprising that there are some accidents.

The machines used at the field here are not of the type that are fully up to expectation. Lieut. McGinnis said that the general principles of the operation are the same. The company of men was greatly interested in a statement from the lieutenant that the much heralded Liberty Motor the government has produced is now measuring up to expectation. The informal talk of Lieut. McGinnis was heard with very marked interest.

It was of an informing kind, touching upon the salient facts of an army department known only to modern war operations.

Centenary Bible Class Picnic.
The Loyal Men's Bible class of Centenary church had a picnic yesterday afternoon at Nichols park and it was a grand success. It was an informal affair, each one bringing what seemed to him best and when all was assembled and spread on the tables south of the lake the array was tempting indeed, bountiful in quantity and superb in quality.

After the blessing invoked by the pastor, Rev. W. R. Leslie, the members enjoyed the feast of good things to the utmost, not a gladder being among the number, some thirty six persons, every one doing his duty with the weapons, knife, fork and spoon and the grinders provided by nature. Henry Muehlhausen furnished ice cream for the occasion and he was actively rising vote of thanks for his generosity.

The members of the class generously remembered the Journal office and fire department and police station with a supply of sandwiches which were greatly appreciated.

E. G. Saye had requested Mrs. William McElfresh of South Harbor avenue to bake them a pie which she did and Mr. Saye said it was past excellence, nothing lacking. It was accompanied by the following letter written by the old lady in a clear, legible hand.

July 26, 1918.

Dear Bro. Saye:
Can't boast of the pie. It was baked by a woman 85 years old in a pan 30 years old. Baked according to government order. You may find it somewhat sweetest; not altogether wheatless and is to be eaten by the hungry class asking no questions for conscience sake. All of you see that Brother Leslie gets a plenty of that which will not make him sick in view of that great day.

Wishing you all a pleasant time,
Yours,
Mrs. Wm. McElfresh.

Dr. L. H. Beeler, the state worker, who will be the chief speaker at the convention is one of the new men in the field force, but is a Sunday school man of experience and will be one of the best speakers we have had in the county for a number of years.

Persons staying over night will be given lodging and breakfast by the Alexander folks. Alexander is easily reached by oiled roads, from all sections of the county, and it is hoped a great host of Sunday school folks will motor to the convention sessions.

The administrative division is for superintendents and pastors, together with all the school officers. These special conferences and addresses deal with problems along this particular line—so it is desired that an unusual number of officials attend this convention. Superintendents will please announce the convention in a special way, and if at all possible, plan to attend it.

BABES COME INTO THEIR OWN

State Fair Offers Prizes to Stimulate Physical Betterment of Children—Daily Program Announced.

Springfield, Ill., July 26.—The program and prize awards for the State-Wide Better Babies Conference which is to be one of the leading features of the Illinois Centennial State Fair, Springfield, was announced today by Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, director of public health.

During the two weeks, August 12 to 24, upwards of one thousand and little tots under five years of age will be submitted to scientific tests to determine their physical and mental status. These tests will be applied by a specially trained corps of medical experts and each child will be graded in accordance with the standard method of scoring young children. High scoring children in the numerous divisions will receive valuable awards and there will be special awards consisting of liberty bonds for the highest scoring boy and the highest scoring girl. The mother of the highest scoring child in the conference will receive the Jacob Bunn award, a gold watch valued at $125.00.

Twins, of which eight pair already are entered in the contest, will be awarded duplicate prizes. Families of six children under sixteen years of age will get special awards.

The prize list excels anything heretofore offered for a Better Babies Contest, and this must be accepted as a better recognition of the fact that the stimulation of physical culture of young children is a matter of greater importance than encouraging the development of fine sports, and a work to which state fairs may with most profit devote increasing attention.

It is pointed out that this contest is open to children between the ages of 6 months and 5 years and that no entry fees are assessed. Requests for application forms should be addressed to Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, director of public health, Springfield, Ill.

The preliminary program of the Better Babies Conference and the public health section is as follows:

Daily Program, Aug. 12-24
1. Examination of children in Better Babies Contest, 10:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

2. Mothers' rest room and nursery, open to mothers and children participating in Better Babies Conference, 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

3. Demonstration of baby feeding, bathing, dressing and sleeping, 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

4. Demonstration of Baby Welfare Section in operation, such as is best adapted to small community service, 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

5. Consultation service for mothers and babies, expert pediatrician in charge, for interpretation of babies' score cards and advice for correction of defects discovered by the examiners, 10:30 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

6. Public health exhibit with all mechanical models in operation, 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

7. Cartoon talk by well known cartoonists, 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

8. Motion picture theatre, free, 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

9. Consultation on public health and sanitary matters, 10:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

Announcement of prize winners will be made Saturday, Aug. 24th at 10:30 a. m. It is expected that Governor Frank O. Lowden will be on hand to award prizes to the babies.

CANNING METHODS WILL BE SHOWN

Series of Demonstrations Arranged for this Week by County Agent—Literberry Has First Date.

The Morgan County Farmers' club, according to notices just sent out to members by G. B. Kendall, county agent, has arranged for a series of five canning demonstrations to take place the coming week.

These demonstrations will be held at the following places on the dates indicated:

Litterberry, Baptist church basement, 2 to 5 p. m., Monday, July 29th.

Murrayville, Town Hall, 2 to 5 p. m., Tuesday, July 30th.

Franklin, M. E. church basement, 2 to 5 p. m., Wednesday, July 31st.

Chapin, Christian church basement, 2 to 5 p. m., Thursday, Aug. 1st.

Jacksonville, place undecided, 2 to 5 p. m., Friday, Aug. 2nd.

The cold pack method of canning will be demonstrated by both water bath and steam pressure processes. Persons who are interested in the demonstrations are asked to bring cans and products that they wish to see put in the cans. It is suggested that persons bring extra cans (or jars) so that if any are broken that the product can still be saved.

The products placed in cans will belong to the persons bringing them. It is the hope that thru this demonstration brought directly into the various communities that there may be wider information about the methods suggested and that a considerable saving of food products may be the result. The demonstrations are primarily for women in several communities men will also be welcomed.

RED CROSS SUBSCRIPTIONS

Many subscribers to the Red Cross fund failed to pay the amounts due July 1. The second installment is due August 1. All subscribers are most urgently requested to make both payments at once at the Elliott State bank. The national organization has called for funds from the Morgan county chapter, which are not available because of failure of subscribers to act with promptness. The increased activity at the war front is making still heavier demand upon the Red Cross and subscribers can give no better aid than by immediately paying subscriptions due.
